LABOR NOTES

Since 1979, Labor Notes has been the voice of union activists who want to put the movement

</d/10dO7vJzNOK8rDQ2u-1ma-yYqxSpkHfwWDSn2MBwZoX8/edit>) to help us with planning.

Questions? Call 718-284-4144.

The Labor Notes Conference is the biggest gathering out there of grassroots union activists, worker center leaders, and all-around troublemakers.

- » Join thousands of union members, officers, and labor activists who are on the front lines in our workplaces and our communities, organizing new workers and agitating together. Meet troublemakers from across the country and around the world.
- » More than 200 meetings and workshops include creative organizing tactics, beating apathy, running for local union office, winning contract campaigns, bargaining over technology, understanding the economy, surviving “right to work,” and reviving the strike.
- » Organize with others in your union, industry, or campaign. Face-to-face meetings to share tactics and swap notes are the heart of the Labor Notes Conference. Join an existing industry, union, or caucus meeting—or contact us to set one up.

"I'll be at Labor Notes for the workshops and the networking opportunities. I love that it's a place where we can meet new people from so many different industries and hear how they solve problems. It's always useful for me as an outspoken activist to learn new organizing techniques."

—Kim Marshall, CWA Local 1101 steward, New York, NY

"You will always find me at Labor Notes. There are so many good workshops—I'll go with a friend, split up and share notes. When the conference is over, you are ready to fight management. You're more prepared, you've got new things up your sleeve. And you meet so many great people

—Marcos Salgado, Teamsters Local 705 steward, Chicago, IL

"Labor Notes is the gift that keeps on giving. When I was first asked to go, to talk about our statewide strike, I had no idea what Labor Notes was. But at the conference I gained a deeper understanding of myself and our struggle in West Virginia. I found life-changing connections and potentially lifelong friends."

—Nicole McCormick, Mercer County Education Association president, Athens, WV
